Respect Life Sunday

I came so that all might have life and have it to the full!

Every person bears God's image and has an immortal soul. Yet many are viewed as being outside the circle of love—unborn children whose parents are tempted to eliminate them, vulnerable people with illnesses and disabilities who risk being abandoned or even killed through misguided "mercy," prisoners on death row, forgotten or despised long after they have repented of their wrongdoing. Although it seems a paradox, the greater the sacrifices made out of love, the greater is our joy and peace. Whether it is the brave decision of a pregnant woman to reject abortion and allow a loving family to parent her child when she cannot, or the daily sacrifices of parents in raising young children, or the hard work of caring for an elderly relative with dementia, when we step up to these challenges, God can stretch our hearts and fill them to overflowing with his love, joy, and peace. With hearts so transformed, we can become living witnesses to the meaning of Jesus' mission: I came so that all might have life, and have it to the full!

Request for Liturgical Ministers: Our Community is in significant need of Liturgical Ministers. If you are not already one, we earnestly ask you to consider serving our parishioners as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, a Minister of Hospitality (Usher), or as a Lector. Persons who serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Lectors are required to attend an Archdiocesan Workshop. Following attendance at the Archdiocesan workshop, Fr. Harry will train and fill you in our routine here at St. Philip Neri. To become a Liturgical Minister, please fill out the Recruitment of Liturgical Ministers form on the table by the church entrance and return it to the Church Office by Monday, October 10, 2011.

Enhancing our Place of Worship: We invite you to help us to have fresh flowers each weekend in church. A donation could be made in memory of a loved one, or in honor of someone marking a special occasion in life, like birthdays, weddings or marriage anniversaries. Because flowers are costly, you may wish to share the expense with another family, on a particular weekend. The ideal would be to have two flower arrangements and these would be placed near the altar area in church. The gift of flowers will be acknowledged in the Parish Bulletin on that weekend. For more information, please contact Yvette at the Church Office.

Peaceful Vigil: Standing for life through these 40 days from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. giving peaceful witness outside Louisiana's largest abortion facility located on Ridgelake Avenue, Metairie. St. Philip Neri has committed to participate in this peaceful, prayerful, and legal vigil outside the abortion facility on Friday, October 14th, 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. At least two people are needed for each of these twelve hours.

Right to Life Calendars Sale: Calendars will be available for purchase after all Masses, October 1 & 2, Respect Life Sunday, for $5.00.

SUNDAY FAMILY GATHERING – October 2, 2011

All are invited to enjoy coffee and doughnuts, immediately following the 8:00 and 9:30 AM Masses in the Parishioners' Center (MP).

October Hosted by: "Grandparents Club" Ministry..

The SPN Grandparents Club, established in 2006, is open to grandparents (and great grandparents!) of all the children of SPN school. Meetings held: 2nd Thursday of the month - 9:30 AM - Parishioners' Center. Mission: To come together to serve God by serving the needs of the school and the Church, while building a sense of fellowship and togetherness.

At our meetings, we are updated about all school and parish events. Members are asked to volunteer for activities that are provided specifically for the children: Santa's Secret Shop, Young Ladies Tea and Style Show, and bake sales or raffles. We have also hosted Trunk or Treat events at Halloween. Members also work hand in hand with the Men's Club and the Ladies Co-Op in the parish-wide activities such as the annual May Fair, Oktoberfest, Crawfish Cook-Off and Lenten Fish Fry.

We often have a local speaker at our meetings, but allow plenty of time for sharing with one another and enjoying refreshments. A special event is the Grandparents Mass, which is held for a different grade each month. We have also started to plan "field trips" for members, such as visiting the Blessed See-los Shrine in New Orleans, or meeting for lunch. For monthly updates, please see our page on the SPN school web site.

“I Confess One Baptism”

Kristopher W. Seaman

“The phrase “I confess one Baptism” is in the last paragraph of the Nicene Creed. This Creed, with a few minor changes added to it at later councils, was primarily written at the Council of Nicaea in 325. Nicaea is a city outside of what today we call Istanbul (during the fourth century, it was known as Constantinople). In the years leading up to this council, the Church struggled to articulate the natures of Christ. The bishops of the Church, particularly those of the East, gathered in order to articulate true belief in who Christ is, especially in his relationship to God the Father. It was a time of controversy on core beliefs. The Creed was the final document of that council, written so that all the faithful may know the central teachings of Christianity.

The revised translation of The Roman Missal adds the word “confess.” This word was not present in the previous translation. To confess is to adhere to; to have faith in something or someone. Thus, to confess something is “to show and to articulate our belief(s).” What does it mean then to “confess one Baptism”?

Through the sacrament of Baptism we enter the Church. This sacrament makes us disciples of the Lord Jesus. Water washes us clean of original sin, and we step out of the font glistening with the radiance of Christ shining through us. That is why we are given a baptismal candle. Candles represent Christ who, like the candle, gave up his life so as to shine forth in the lives of believers who were purified by fire and water.

In the ritual of Baptism, the Creed is a significant part of the sacrament. Rather than professing the Creed, the priest (or the deacon) requests the Creed in the form of questions: “Do you believe in God, the Father almighty . . . ?” Adults will answer, “I do!” while godparents will answer on behalf of the infant. We are used to this form of question, especially at Easter when we renew our baptismal promises, or when a Baptism of an infant takes place during Mass. Those baptismal promises comprise the Creed.

By confessing in “one Baptism,” we confess, or state our faith or adherence to, that there is one way to enter the Church. It is this sacrament that makes us disciples of the Lord Jesus. The Creed is a Trinitarian confession: We confess our belief in “God, / the Father,” “one Lord Jesus Christ, / the Only Begotten Son of God,” and “the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life.” In the waters of Baptism, we are baptized in the name of the Triune God: “N., I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” We were marked or “branded” in God’s very name.

This means that we are put into relationship, into communion, with God. God himself is a communion: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God’s great love issues forth from this divine Communion in order to bring us into communion, into relationship, with God’s very self. God’s love overflows and washes us in life giving waters.

That Baptism is a sacrament of the Church means that participation in the sacrament also puts us into relationship with the Church. This is why Saint Augustine of Hippo could remind those who were baptized that they wear the name of Christ as Christians. Like water, candle, and flame, we are to shine the love of the Triune God to renew the face of the earth, to give of ourselves in sacrificial love, and to burn brightly so that God’s love, peace and presence will be felt in what we do and say as Christian disciples.”
