From the Desk of Fr. Harry...

I am sincerely grateful for the very warm welcome you have extended to me throughout my first week here! It is truly great to be with you and I'm looking forward to eventually getting to know each and all of you. Serving as your pastor is an extraordinary honor and I promise to give you my best efforts in promoting God's reign among us. I appreciate immensely your strong faith, your regular worship with us, your financial support of our parish and your willingness to embrace ministry. Feel free to come by the Parish Office and visit. I welcome your thoughts and your hopes for our parish. Please let me know if a family member is in the hospital or is confined to their home. I will certainly visit them. I promise to pray for you every day and I ask that you pray for me too, asking God to guide me in the right direction and bless me with the grace of Wisdom. Truly, may God be glorified in this community of faith that is the Church of St. Philip Neri!

Also, you may mail your check to the Church Office. Thank you.

From the Desk of ...Fr. Michael J. Schneller
Pastor, St. Ann Roman Catholic Church & Shrine

"Dear Fr. Harry,
I want to take this opportunity to welcome you to St. Philip Neri Parish and the East Jefferson Deanery of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. I am delighted to have you as a neighbor and look forward to sharing our priestly life and ministry as I had the pleasure of sharing with your predecessor, my friend and my classmate, the late Fr. Lee Saloy.

I also ask that you please express to your new parishioners my gratitude and that of my own people the hospitality they offered us during the renovations of St. Ann Church and Shrine. It was an honor for Father Luke Nguyen and me to celebrate daily Eucharist with such devoted Catholics.

As we move back into our renovated church and shrine on Saturday, July 30, 2011, be assured that the intentions of the people of St. Philip Neri will be among those offered at the Liturgy of Dedication and our Sunday Eucharistic celebrations the last weekend of July.

In the words of Psalm 122 "Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord."

Grace and Peace"

Each week our bulletin will include information pertaining to the use of the new translation of the Roman Missal, which we will begin using, the First Sunday of Advent.

10. What opportunities does the new Missal offer the Church? Implementing the new Missal will give the Church an opportunity to take a fresh look at its liturgical practice and to renew its celebration of the Sacred Liturgy, which is the “source and summit” of Christian life (Second Vatican Council, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church [Lumen Gentium], no. 11). The faithful, encountering the Liturgy anew in the new text, can deepen their sharing in Christ’s sacrifice, offering their lives to the Father as they worship “in Spirit and truth” (Jn 4:23).

THE NEW BATTLE OF NEW ORLEANS: VIOLENCE, MURDER, RACISM

“Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism.

We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people.

Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence.

Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.”
