St. Philip Neri Church

6500 Kawanee Avenue
Metairie, Louisiana

Please Call Fr. Harry: All parents of children preparing for First Eucharist are asked to call Fr. Harry at (504)887-5535, to schedule a time to meet with him at his office. He wishes to have a brief conversation with both parents and your child about the Eucharist. Fr. Harry also asks the Confirmation Candidates, their Parents and, if possible, the Sponsor to contact him to arrange a meeting.

SPN RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY...

Is excited to announce that beginning this weekend, January 21 & 22, 2012, our parish will participate in a Spiritual Adoption Program! We encourage everyone to join together in a parish wide effort to increase our prayers to end the evil of abortion. January 22 is the 39th Anniversary of Roe v Wade which legalized abortion.

On October 6 & 7, 2012, Respect Life Sunday (the ninth month of pregnancy), your baby will be born and our parish will rejoice by having a Baby Shower! You will then be asked to bring a Baby gift (diapers, diaper wipes, infant clothes, crib sheets, blankets, baby bottles, layette items etc) to our church on that weekend. These gifts will be given to the Access Program of Catholic Charities which will distribute them to the women they counsel in their crisis pregnancy program.

In Launching ...A YEAR OF RENEWAL:

OFFERING A WORTHY SACRIFICE OF PRAISE, which focuses on the Mass, Archbishop Aymond asks that a ten-part series of Bulletin Inserts be made available. Give Thanks and Praise: A Popular Explanation of the Mass, Part 6: The Liturgy of the Eucharist (a), appears this weekend.

Enhancing our Place of Worship: We invite you to help us to have fresh flowers each weekend in church. A donation could be made in memory of a loved one, or in honor of someone marking a special occasion in life, like birthdays, weddings or marriage anniversaries. Because flowers are costly, you may wish to share the expense with another family, on a particular weekend. The ideal would be to have two flower arrangements and these would be placed near the altar area in church. The gift of flowers will be acknowledged in the Parish Bulletin on that weekend. For more information, please contact Yvette at the Church Office.

Sunday, January 15, 2012:

Q&A: Godparents

Who may be godparents for our baby's baptism?

Godparents should be both role models and resource persons, individuals who are at ease with the practice of their faith and would normally be considered "active" Catholics. They should be people who are comfortable with answering questions about their personal relation with God as experienced in the Catholic communion, even if they are unsure about all the technicalities. They should be people who are interested in and will continue to support their godchild in the years ahead as they and their godchild develop in their relationships with God and others.

Church law specifies that godparents be at least sixteen years old and themselves have been fully initiated, that is, have received the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and first communion. It also assumes that godparents have been asked to serve in this role by the individual to be baptized (or, in the case of infants, by the family or, if they do not know anyone, the local pastor). The other requirements stipulate that parents should not be godparents, nor should anyone whose status in the church is questionable.

The role of the godparent is not merely that of patron—it is that of mentor. And so, sometimes emotional conflicts occur in a family when relatives or close friends who are held in esteem are considered as possible godparents, but are technically not qualified either because they are not Catholics or because they are Catholics who do not practice their faith regularly or whose religious status is "problematic" because of some situation, for example, a civil marriage not blessed by the church.

It is occasionally permitted for a non-Catholic Christian to be associated as a "Christian witness" to a baptism. Though not officially a godparent, such an individual can still function as a role model for someone who is trying to learn about how a person should follow Christ in our troublesome world. In such situations, another person should be designated as the official godparent, someone who fits into the traditional categories.

Most people are aware of the conflicts that can occur between loyalties based on relationships and friendship and the demands of liturgical and religious authenticity. Not every relative or friend is appropriate to serve as godparent, and not every person who is appropriate as a godparent is close enough to serve in that capacity for the family. Balance is not easy to achieve! In special cases, the advice of the local priest or pastoral minister can be very helpful.

PRAYER TO END ABORTION

*Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life and for the lives of all my brothers and sisters.
I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, yet I rejoice that you have conquered death by Resurrection of Your Son.
I am ready to do my part in ending abortion.
Today I commit myself never to be silent,
never to be passive,
never to be forgetful of the unborn.
I commit myself to be active in the pro-life movement,
and never to stop defending life
until all my brothers and sisters are protected,
and our nation once again becomes a nation with liberty and justice not just for some, but for all, through Christ our Lord. Amen!*
