Fr. Saloy's Update:

Father informed the Council of the new speaker system and the positive feedback he has received about it.

He noted that a new building which could accommodate classrooms to replace the trailer units now in use as well as a week-day chapel would be ideal but starting a capital campaign at this time is prohibited by the Archdiocese.

Lastly, Father stated that the liturgies and other celebrations for Christmas were very successful. Jean then thanked Father for the dinner which he hosted for the various ministries on January 9.

Jean Turner's Update:

The book commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the parish is in progress. 372 families have had their pictures taken. There will be additional books available for sale and the proceeds from the sale will be used to help to defray the cost of the extra pages we will be adding to the printing.

Old Business:

Email blasts: it was decided to table this topic until a later meeting.

Fr. Paul – "Year of the Priest": Possibilities are still being explored.

New Business:

Trey suggested that a notice be put in the bulletin or an announcement be made before Mass that parents take babies who are crying into the cry-room.

Rebecca moved that the meeting be adjourned and Mary seconded. Father Saloy led the Council in a closing prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Beth Johnson
